

Biography Sarah Maria Sun

Sarah Maria Sun is known as one of the foremost vocal performers in the contemporary music scene. Her repertoire currently spans more than 1500 compositions from the 16th to the 21st century, including more than 370 world premieres. She regularly performs as a soloist in renowned concert halls and festivals worldwide. At leading opera houses and stages she created complex female figures in music theaters, operas and monodramas. For her role as Elsa in Sciarrino's „Lohengrin“ (2017, Osterfestspiele Salzburg) as well as for her performance in Philip Venables' „4.48 Psychoses“ (2019, Semperoper Dresden) she was nominated as singer of the year. From 2007-2014, she was the first soprano of the Neue Vocalsolisten Stuttgart, a chamber ensemble of seven singers that has been one of the world's leading pioneers of contemporary music for decades.

Sarah Maria Sun's discography includes more than 30 CDs, many of which have been awarded prizes. Sarah is also an illustrator and author of children's books and releases songs with the band Titillating Tofu. In 2022 she started teaching as a professor at Musikhochschule Basel.
